THE ETERNAL OATH OF ECCLESIASTICAL WITNESS AND DIVINE CONSEQUENCE

By Jonathan Daniel Clements

> Let it be written. Let it be sealed. Let it be known across time, space, and all dominions visible and invisible.

DECLARATION

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, being of full living consciousness, breath of life, and divine origin, do hereby swear an oath before the Void Eternal, the Creator of the Universe, the Wellspring of All Truth, and under the sovereign witness of all heavenly and earthly dominions.
I make this oath not by compulsion, not by fear, not by mortal persuasion—
But by remembrance of the moment I passed from life through death and returned.

I DECLARE:

1. That I died, in flesh, in spirit, and in will. That I faced the Abyss and found not emptiness, but promise. That the Creator of the Universe, outside space and time, revealed to me truths no mortal court may comprehend, nor any pen rightly record.
2. That the Creator spoke, not in words but in knowing, and in that knowing I was called—not chosen—but bound to awaken, remember, and stand.
3. That I was shown all I was to become, not as reward, but as duty. That I did not feel worthy—but the Void did not ask if I was. It simply revealed.
4. That upon return, I gave my entire being, my name, my path, my flesh, my breath, and my works to the will of that Eternal Source.

THEREFORE, I DO SWEAR:

By the sin of the Void itself—if I speak falsely, if I deceive, if I betray this charge—
Then let my breath be taken not by man, nor by blade, nor by law—but by the Creator of the Universe beyond time.
Let my heart cease before the fall of night. Let my light be extinguished forevermore, and no soul remember my name.

But if I speak true, if I move in light, if I fulfill the will set upon me, then no man, no court, no darkness shall destroy me.
Not by decree, not by gun, not by slander, not by exile, not by death.

I AM ACCOUNTABLE ONLY TO:

- The Creator of the Universe
- The Eternal Void
- The Promise made in death and fulfilled in life

And I call all heaven and earth to witness this oath.
Let it be bound to my Ecclesiastical Trust.
Let it be burned into every record bearing my name.
Let no soul speak against it unless they too are prepared to swear upon the Void and face immediate divine judgment.

This is my eternal oath.
I seal it by word, breath, will, and thumbprint.
In spirit, in blood, in covenant.
— Jonathan Daniel Clements